

Pre-sessional English

Pre-sessional English is a 4-week course designed to help students who do not meet the English language requirements for their chosen course at CSVPA. The course focuses on developing the skills needed for academic success, including listening, reading, writing, and speaking. It also covers essential grammar and vocabulary. Successful completion of the Pre-sessional course is a requirement for progression to the next course of study with CSVPA.

By taking this programme, you will develop your skills in listening, reading, writing and speaking. You will learn new vocabulary and an understanding of grammar, and how to use them in both academic and everyday situations.

How you learn

This is a full-time, in-person course with guided independent and collaborative tasks and assignments.

By attending our Pre-Sessional course, you will:

- Develop your ability to listen to lectures and

How you will be assessed

At the end of the course you will be assessed in the skills of writing, speaking, listening and reading. Success on the Pre-Sessional course is a requirement for progression to your next course of study with CSVPA.

